Groups from the Engineers Club of New York (, the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, the Queens County (N. Y.) Medical Society, the Kiwanis Club of Opelika, Ala., the Exchange Club of Selma, Ala., and scores of other civic and professional organizations are enthusiastic Carnegie students. The smart thing to do is to join them.

When you enroll for the Dale Carnegie Course you will meet in Elba one night a week for 16 weeks with the group of business and professional men and women who are not satisfied to get into a rut. Men and wemen whose purpose is to progress and become more effective in dealing with people.

Your instructors will be men who are graduates of the Dale Carnegie School for instructors, which is supervised by Dale Carnegie and conducted by Percy H. Whiting, author of the "Five Great Rules of Selling." Mr. Whiting has taught 72,000 men and women how to sell!

HAMP MORRIS III, of Geneva, Past President Alarama Cotton Manufacturers Association, said "My wife, my partner Joel Johnson and I were so pleased with what we got out of the Dale Carnegie Course we are paying part tuition for 36 key men from our plants."

GLADY CLARK- The Dale Carnegie Course has helped me in many ways, but most of all it has helped me have a better understanding of, and a keener interest in, people, which has made my work and every-day living mean more to me than ever before.

MISS ROBERTA BYRD, Secretary-Treasurer, Sessions Peanut Co.—The Dale Carnegie Course changed my entire life, not only helped me in my work but has given me a better outlook and taught me the joy of unselfish service.

W. O. STINSON Jr.,, President of Fisher Hardware Co., DeFuniak Springs, Fla.-I took this course with nine of my employees and consider it the best in vestment I ever made.
